[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE RECORD-UNION.]

After a brief debate, Sherman, referring to Beck's speech of last week, had read a paragraph in which he (Sherman) had been severely criticised for his connection with demonitization. He would have regarded it as unworthy of notice, as the Senator from Kentucky had been under some excitement, but that he had used the word "secrecy"; that it was done under cover, and that he (Sherman) was responsible. He proceeded to show how the principle of law had been reported in the bill three years before it went into effect, [Loud applause.] and how it has been discussed, etc. He wanted to know why such a matter had been lugged into a debate with which it had nothing to do.

Beck asserted that he would to-morrow prove all his statements.

INGALLS TAKES THE FLOOR. Ingalls, having called Platt to the chair, proceeded to address the Senate, the galle-ries being crowded to their full capacity. He had been surprised one day last week on returning to the chamber, after a long absence, to learn that the Senator from Missouri (Vest) had referred to him in terms not complimentary, and had coupled with personal remarks an intimation that the people of the District of Columbia were incapable of disinterested patriotism, and that the veterans of the Republic were a mob of sordid plunderers. As to himself, he would say that the nomination and election of Grover Cleveland had made the retensions of any American citizen to the residency respectable. There was no man this country whose ignorance was so profound, whose obscurity was so impenetrable, whose antecedents so degraded that he had not a right to aspire to the Presidential nomination the Democratic party. He regretted that the Senator from Missouri was not in Fancy Wire Card Receivers or Table his seat to-day. He should imitate that Senator's bad example, and would confine himself, so far as he was concerned, to that Senator's autobiograpy. That Senator was born in a State that had not seceded Kentucky), and had represented in the onfederate Congress a State which had ot seceded (Missouri). The Senator from (Blackburn) had also referred sneeringly to the super-loyalty of the sol-diers of the Union. It was curious that Confederates from Union States were a little more pronounced, a little more aggressive, and a little more violent in their denunciaon of the North than Confederates from States that had seceded. He did not know where the Senator from Missouri got the gures from when he stated that but 8 000 of Lee's army had surrendered at Appo-mattox. But one parallel was to be found in the extraordinary inaccuracy of that statement, and that was the same Senator's assertion that of the 2,300,000 soldiers of the Union army, more than half had applied for pensions. Such speeches as those of the Senators from Missouri and Kentucky were intended to catch the Confederate vote, and they would not be the senators from th eatch it. He wanted the Senators of the Democratic side to understand that the disuise for opposing the pension bills was exceedingly thin, and that nobody was de ceived by it. The South did not love the Union army, neither did the Democratic of them are beautifully printed and half the size of the Bible, but people take them up. glance at them, and throw them away. Facts should be told concisely and the gen-eral resources of the State described—not single localities. Mr. Stabler commented on the time taken

A TRIPLE TRAGEDY. Daring and Bloody Deeds of a Bank

Bradford (Pa.), March 6th .- About 11 o'clock this morning a man named Kim-ball entered the Bradford National Bank with a revolver in his hand. When mid-way between the paying-teller's desk and discount clerk's desk he nimbly jumped over the high glass partition and made a grab for the money on the cashier's desk. The suddenness of the affair paralyzed the clerks, but cashier Tomlinson rushed from his private office and seized the robber. As he did so he received A BALL FROM A REVOLVER In the hands of the villain over the left hip. going clear through him and coming out over the right. He dropped, and the rob-ber escaped at the front door, with the noney, and ran down a side street. The report of the revolver attracted a crowd, and a number of citizens started in pursuit. NEURALGIA. Nerves .- Were it possible to observe the misery of the world in some concrete form, nothing ever conceived would surpass its horrors. Every one thread-like nerves have each a latent power to cause excruciating pain, the limit of which is simply the limit of human endurance. Think of the toothache, with a single little nerve at work to drive one crazy; think of Neuraldia, with a few of these fibrous torments all pulsing painfully at once, and then reflect that at the same moment thousands, tens of thousands, perhaps millions, are suffering alike.

CHARACTERISTICS. Subtile Pain .- Neuralgic affections are perhaps the most pronounced in the enormous list of aches and pains. Nothing is so subtile in its approach; nothing so flagrant, acute and distressing, and certainly nothing, all the world admits, yet discovered, so completely subdues its ravages and so permanently conquers its pangs as that above mentioned.

SYMPTOMS. Symptoms.—Neuralgia is defined to be a nerve disease, the chief symptom of which is a very acute pain, intermitting, which follows the course of the nerve branch affected, and which seems therefore to be seated in the nerve. The general symptoms are: Soreness along the nerve; pains alternating between an ache and acute pain. Arising from a disordered stomach, it is often at-tended by vomiting.

reatment.-Apply ST. JACOBS OIL frequently, gently rubbing the afflicted parts; apply to the whole extent of the nerve soreness; keep up a gentle friction until a burning sensation is produced. Avoid sudden change of temperature.

THE BRIGGS BILL.

The Board of Supervisors of Sacramento county, while in session yesterday, received a communication from George Ohleyer, girl in school," but the most beautiful Manager of the Anti-Debris Association, inclosing copies of a petition formulated by Boards of Supervisors of the counties of Yuba and Sutter. Mr. Ohleyer stated in his letter that it was desired that the Board of Supervisors of this county should approve the petition officially and notify him of their action, so that the petition could be forwarded at once to Washington. The The following report was received and tion, and instructed the clerk to notify Mr. Ohleyer of its action. The petition is as

To the Honorable, the Senate and House of Re

resentatives of the United States, Washington, D. C.: On January 4, 1888, a bill, No. 1216, was introduced in the House of Representatives by Hon. Marion Biggs, of California, entitled "A bill for Marion Biggs, of California, entitled "A bill for the investigation of the mining debris question in the State of California." The undersigned believing that such an investigation is uncalled for, beg leave to submit a few reasons why this bill should not become a law:

First—The question has already been investigated by United States and State authority, reports of which are on file in the appropriate departments at Washington and Sacramento, and in all its bearings has been passed upon by the United States Circuit Court of California (Ninth District) in the celebrated Sawyer decision, in the case of hdwards Woodruff vs. The North Bloomfield Gravel Mining Company et al. Said forty or fifty trees, banana, palm, orange and lemon trees that the committee desired around their exhibit building near the depot, lay the grounds out in walks, set out flower beds, plant grass plots, etc., and keep all presentable for the privilege of using the remainder for a private nursery and flower garden.

Colonel Hamilton favored this proposition very much. He said it would save the Association a large amount annually, make the place more attractive, as well as allowing Mr. Ebel an opportunity of building up a trade with the traveling public in Valley, who have spent hundreds of thousands of dollars to preserve their homes, the valley's navigable river channels, and incidentaly the Bay and harbors of San Francisco.

Third—Hydraulic mining being a private industry, prosecuted for private gain in which the Government has no interest whatever, the appropriation of funds for the purpose proposed in the bill is inconsistent with governmental value.

Fourth—For the truth of all these assertion FOURTH—FOR the truth of all these assertions we most respectfully refer you to documents on lie at Washington, relating to the debris conroversy, and also to the uniform decisions in he numerous cases tried by all the Courts, both rederal and State, against the use of river changles as relaces of nels as places of deposit for mining tailing; and we also beg to refer you to the last River an Harbor Act, relating to this question and to th harbor of New York (approved August 5, 1886 and found on pages 19 and 22 respectively.

Surgical Instruments Recovered. Officer Sullivan went down to Port Costa esterday morning, and returned with William Lysle, whom he arrested at that place on the charge of having stolen a se of surgical instruments from the office of Dr. G. L. Simmons, Jr., about ten days ago. Port Costa, where he was arrested on a charge of stealing a valise belonging to a man named Price. The instruments were found in his possession, and Chief Dillman received a communication from the officers at Port Costa, asking if he knew anything about them. It was then arranged that, it the man was not convicted there, the au-thorities were to notify Chief Dillman, and he would send for Lysle. Price recovered his valise and disappeared, so that the Port Costa officials could not prosecute. Yesterday morning Lysle was discharged, but was immediately arrested by officer Sullivan and brought to this city. While at Port Costa he claimed that the instruments belonged to him, and that he was a physician. As he once worked in a drug store, is well educated and of good personal appearance, the offi-cers did not know but his statement was true. On the way to this city, however, Lysle confessed to the officer that he had stolen the instruments from Dr. Simmon's office. He said he had been at work at the railroad shops, got out of a job and went up to the doctor's office to borrow a dollar

GENERAL NOTICES.

Advice to Mothers.—Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoa, whether arising from teething or other causes. ### WAS IT MURDER?

A MAN FOUND DYING IN AN ALLEY.

Manuel Strauss and Kate Cooper Have Been Arrested on Suspicion.

About half-past 8 o'clock last night the attention of J. T. Barron was called to a man lying in the alley between L and M, Second and Third streets, in a dving condition. Officers Franks and Ash were summoned and the man was conveyed immediately to the station-house, where every effort was made by Jailer Leavy to revive him. Dr. Baldwin was called, and at once announced that the man had taken opium or morphine. Emetics were administered, but the unfortunate stranger died at 9:30 without having shown any signs of life, except occasional deep respirations, accomanied by a gurgling sound in the throat. The man was about five feet eight or nine iches in hight, of a sandy complexion, reddish hair, chin whiskers and mustache thickly mixed with gray, and apparently over 60 years of age. He was dressed in a decent suit of clothes, wore a nickle watch and gold or plated chain, with a compass for a charm, and had in his pocket a small purse, $2 in money, and a baggage check-No. 2, relative to the number of guide "So. WASHINGTON, March 6th.—Randall has met with an unexpected difficulty in the preparation of his tariff bill, and it may preparation of his tariff bill, and it may not be reported to the House before Thursday. He has had trouble in the preparation of the woolen schedule. He was pre-pared to accept, as the basis of the rates of duties to be fixed upon wool, woolen goods worsteds, etc., any rate of duties that the representatives of wool-growers, wool manufactures and wool dealers could reach. The wool manufacturers asked for a rate of duty that was impossible for Mr. Randall to accept, because the result of it would have been to largely increase the revenues from importations of woolen goods.

To-day a final conference of wool men President Was held at the Capitol, and an agreement was held at the Capitol, and an agreement on this subject was reached. What the rates agreed upon are, Randall refused to made. The bill will go to the printer to-Draws Exchange on all the principal morrow, and will be introduced in the House for reference to the Ways and Means Committee not later than Thursday.

> REVENUE REDUCTION. The House Ways and Means Committee's

Revenue Bill. WASHINGTON, March 6th .- A majority of the Ways and Means Committee has submitted to the full committee the internal evenue bill. Section 1 of the bill provides for the repeal of all taxes on manufactured chewing tobacco, smoking tabacco and snuff, special taxes upon manufactur-ers of and dealers in leaf tobacco, to take effect July 1, 1888. A rebate for the full amount of tax on unlabeled packages of smoking and manufactured tobacco and snuff held by manufacturers and dealers on July 1st, will be allowed, if the claim is presented before September 1st. Section 2 provides that the manufacturers of cigars shall each pay annually a special tax of $3 and dealers in tobacco $1. The manufacturers of cigars, cheroots or cigarettes will not be required to pay a special tax as the dealer, when the products are sold at the place of manufacture.

Section 3 provides an appropriation for expenses incidental in carrying the above into effect. Section 4 repeals Section 3361 of the Revised Statutes, and all laws which im-oose restrictions upon the sale of leaf to-Sections 5 to 9, inclusive, provide penalties for violation of the internal revenue laws, appointments of Commissioners, etc.

Section 10 amends Section 3176 of the Revised Statutes, and provides penalties for concealing or falsely reporting taxable Section 11 amends Section 3255 of the Revised Statutes. By a party vote the bill was added to the Mill's tariff bill, making one bill of both. CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

The House. Washington, March 6th.—Thomas of Illinois introduced a bill prohibiting the use of likenesses, portraits or representations of ladies for advertising purposes without their consent in writing. Referred.

The House then resumed consideration of the Alabama contested election case—

McDuffy against Davidson.

O'Farrell of Virginia supported the ma-ority report. He ridicaled what he called the claims of the Republican party; that the negro vote of the South was invariably east for the nominees of that party. That had been true in years gone by, but was no now. The negroes were now learning who their friends were. A man of destiny, wh had arisen in 1884, had taken into his bi national heart all sections and extended the ægis of his protection over the North and the South—over white and colored—without discrimination. The Republican party of the South sought to hold the negroes through their churches and societies. Through a system of intimida-tion and bulldozing the colored men of the NOS. 209 TO 219 K STREET. South were as abject slaves to the preachers as they had been the day when Lincoln. with hesitating hand, signed the emancipation proclamation. Houck of Tennessee said the gentleman from Virginia had stated that all the colored people who used to vote the Republican ticket now voted the Democratic ticket. Was that the reason the Democratic majority in Virginia had fallen from 50,000 to nothing, and that the Democrats had only one or two members in the House from Virginia, while the Republicans halsix or seven? If the Democratic party had ever contributed anything to the emancipation of the colored people, it was on the principle of a kicking gun killing things behind Boutellesaid the gentleman from Virginia

When he (Boutelle) had suggested that the gentleman was not situated so as to be well informed on that point the gentleman had become very much excited and talked about bravery and cowardice. It requires very peculiar kind of bravery in any man to stand up before the American people and attempt to pluck from the brow of the martyred Lincoln so much as one single withered laurel leaf placed there by the consent of the civilized world.

After further debate of a political nature the minority resolution, declaring McDuffie entitled to the seat, was rejected—yeas, 122; nays, 154, and the majority report, declaring magnifications.
